Dear Faithful Friends,

The Word is a sharp two-edged sword, it will get to the issue, the truth in short time, dividing and separating fact from fiction, right from wrong, soul from spirit, it will dig deep to discern the thoughts and intents.

Woe to those who use scripture for intents and purposes of their own. The intents and purposes of the Word are God's ALONE, not ours! Listen to what the word says,

"So shall My word be which goes forth from My mouth; It shall not return to me empty, without accomplishing what I desire, and without succeeding in the matter for which I sent it." Isaiah 55:11.

There is a spirit in the world, it is the spirit of antichrist and as a believer, as you follow Christ in word, in obedience, in conviction by the Holy Spirit, that spirit of disobedience will come against you. The time is coming when those who think they have time to serve the Lord ---> in their time ---> that time is now coming to an end. Someday for some, will never come in the way they think. Someday I will have more time to seek the Lord. Scripture says the time is now. Seek Him while He may be found. Someday I will have more resources, I can make up the tithe then, someday I will speak to my neighbor about the Lord, I just don't have time today. Is time ours? I certainly have no intention to put a guilt trip on you or myself but sooner or later we will all run out of time. The stopwatch is in God's hand. It is certainly ticking away. Can you hear it? It is the sound of the coming of the Lord!

The scripture clearly states in Isaiah 55:11, that the word goes forth from God and it comes back to God. The accomplishment is God's. The obedience is ours. We are to stand and speak. He says open your mouth and I will fill it. We need to bring these things to remembrance. It isn't about our ability.

We don't want to receive any condemnation Lord, but we do want to recognize what you are saying to us. What the Spirit is saying to the Church. Are we making ready for His Glorious appearing? Let the tears we shed be tears of joy, because of our obedience, and not tears of regret. Amen.

I especially need your prayers in the next few weeks. My leaving for Johannesburg has been delayed. I have a fast growing, crystallized cataract in my left eye. I will have surgery next week and hope to recover quickly with no complications. Thank you for your thoughtful notes of encouragement and gifts of love. No one other than the Lord can love like the body of Christ. I am so grateful for your friendship. May His blessings overtake you and your household.
