Dear Faithful Friends:

Greetings from Africa! The past month has been full of pressure, work and sadness. We have just buried Maggie Hadebe, one of our students, mother of five and leaving a husband grieving to the point of exhaustion. Mike and Maggie were two of heaven's gifts to bring kindness, sunshine and love into this world. They were pioneering a new church; their first service was the Sunday before the accident that ended Maggie's journey here on earth. We will miss this precious person.

We ministered at a Pastor's Conference in Johannesburg. It still amazes us how so many pastors from different countries can get to these gatherings. We endeavor to get them solidly founded (they are already fired-up) to better serve their countries with the Gospel of the Beloved Son of God.

Pastor Eli from Kenya visited with us here in Johannesburg last week. He started using the Advance School of Ministry material a little over three years ago and has graduated 300+ students at the certificate/diploma level. He is opening 14 additional learning centers over the next two years. What a blessing to Pam and I to see this curriculum we have worked on for the last four years (to which you all personally contributed) be put into capable hands such as Eli's. We will have the privilege of spending several hours in Orientation sessions with 23 church leaders from eleven countries across Africa at Missions Exposure and Training in Pretoria this month. God continues to call and the churches continue to send. In the past ten years graduates from the school have planted churches in 25 countries around the world! Most of these churches are among the "unreached peoples" of the world.

Finally, we thank you again for partnering with us, we continue to concentrate on one thing - how we can be more effective in preaching the Gospel and train others to be effective workers in the Kingdom also. Our hope is that at the Judgement Seat of Christ, we'll hear the Lord say, "You did what I told you to do". May God bless you for your intercessions on our behalf.

Yours in Christ Jesus,

Roland and Pam
