Pastor's
Prayer Committee

8 My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

9 For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

10 My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

Proverbs 1:8-10

“Jesus Christ is only one Prayer away”

From the Pastor's Pen...

A lesson that I have learned is that there is no substitute for paying attention...

A band of juvenile thieves had a well-refined method of operation. They would enter a store as a group. Then, one or two of them would separate from the rest of the group. The others would move to a distant section of the store and start a loud argument, causing enough commotion to grab the attention of the clerks and customers. All eyes would be turned toward the disturbance, leaving the one or two “roving” thieves an opportunity to fill their pockets with merchandise or cash and leave the store before anyone suspected what had happened.

It would be hours, sometimes even days later, before the victimized merchant realized things were missing and call the police. By that time, the thieves were long gone and there was no possibility of tracing or recovering what had been taken.

Temptation works the same way. It distracts us by using the allure of fame, fortune, power or satisfaction of fleshly desires. In the process, we are often diverted from critical steps we need to take toward the accomplishment of our goals. When we take our eyes off of what is truly important in our lives, we run the risk of losing it!

Proverbs 1:5

A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Fisher's of Men

Time to put your toys away
You're a big boy now
There's another game you must learn to play
Let me teach you how
Like fishing there are lures to use
Your catch depends on which you choose
Many a trophy fish we've lost
Through weak spots in the line we've tossed
So if you want to bag a prize
Check your gear and realize
To save the souls of men there are rules and like fish your quarry runs in schools

What Makes A Dad

God took the strength of a mountain, The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun, The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature, The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages, The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring, The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity, The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities, When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it ... Dad

When I was a boy of 14, my father was so ignorant I could hardly stand to have the old man around. But when I got to be 21, I was astonished at how much the old man had learned in seven years.

Fathers are Wonderful People

Fathers are wonderful people
Too little understood,
And we do not sing their praises
As often as we should...
For, somehow, Father seems to be
The man who pays the bills,
While Mother binds up little hurts
And nurses all our ills...
And Father struggles daily
To live up to "HIS IMAGE"
As protector and provider
And "hero of the scrimmage"...
And perhaps that is the reason
We sometimes get the notion,
That Fathers are not subject
To the thing we call emotion,
But if you look inside Dad's heart,
Where no one else can see
You'll find he's sentimental
And as "soft" as he can be...
But he's so busy every day
In the grueling race of life,
He leaves the sentimental stuff
To his partner and his wife...
But Fathers are just WONDERFUL
In a million different ways,
And they merit loving compliments
And accolade of praise,
For the only reason Dad aspires
To fortune and success
Is to make the family proud of him
And to bring them happiness...
And like OUR HEAVENLY FATHER,
He's a guardian and a guide,
Someone that we can count on
To be ALWAYS ON OUR SIDE.
