Dear Faithful Friends:

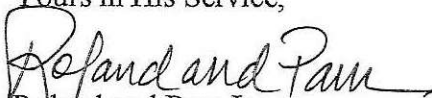

Greetings in the matchless name of Christ Jesus! Another chapter in our missionary work has come to a close. Our colleagues, Drs. Ron and Linda Fritch, whom we have worked with at World Harvest Theological College for the last twelve years, have retired to their home state of Oklahoma, U.S.A. . A more dedicated couple to the specific work of bringing quality Biblical Education to the spiritually hungry of Africa you could not find. They really did not want to retire, for they loved the work and the people whom God keeps sending us from all over Africa. Ron had several strokes that depleted his strength to the point that he could not take the physical demands of the Bible College work any longer. He collapsed in the classroom, causing great anxiety. He and Linda are commendable soldiers of the cross. Their names are before you, please remember them in your prayers as they transition back to the States. God will reward them for their commitment in equipping and enabling the "poor" of Africa. (Proverbs 19:17).

Several years ago Ron and I had anticipated that we must by the guidance and counsel of God, select our future teachers and administrators from those who were being trained at World Harvest. This we did and today with the exception of Pam and me, the entire lecturing and administrative staff are from Africa.

The vast majority of our graduates serve in the wide expansive field of Africa. They are preaching and teaching the word of God, winning precious souls to the eternal life offered in Jesus Christ. They are pioneering churches, sending us more students and in a number of cases setting up learning centers in their own localities. We will in the future be offering them the foundational curriculum of Advance School of the Bible International. Our special thanks to Mike and Linda Lowe, Sandy Mirtsching and Sheila Carswell in Morganton, N.C. for being an integral part in sending the Word of God to these spiritually hungry people and places.

Beloved, we do have guarantees, the Lord will not allow His faithfulness to fail (Psalm 89:33) and Jesus said, "I will build my church" (Matthew 16:18). Thank you for being faithfully committed to those things to which the Lord has faithfully committed Himself.

Yours in His Service,

Roland and Pam Jones
